IV. Supervisory Board

§ 10 Composition and term of office

1. The Supervisory Board comprises twelve members, six of whom are elected by the Annual Shareholders' Meeting and six by the employees in accordance with the provisions set out in the German Co-Determination Act (MitbestG).
2. The fiscal year in which the term of office commences shall not be included in this period. Supervisory Board members may be reappointed. The Annual Shareholders' Meeting can stipulate a shorter term of office for Supervisory Board members representing the shareholders when they are elected. A by-election for Supervisory Board members who have left the Supervisory Board prematurely shall be held for the remaining term of office of the Supervisory Board member who has left, unless otherwise resolved by the Annual Shareholders' Meeting.
3. Only individuals who have not yet reached the age of 70 on the day of the Annual Shareholders' Meeting at which the members of the Supervisory Board are elected are eligible for election; this also applies to the election of substitute members.

If the by-election for a member of the Supervisory Board who left prematurely should result in the departure of a substitute member who took his/her place, the resolution on the by-election requires a majority of three quarters of the votes cast. If the substitute member who left as a result of the by-election had been appointed for several specific Supervisory Board members representing the shareholders, his/her position as substitute member shall be revived. The election of the substitute members of the Supervisory Board representing the employees shall be in accordance with the provisions set out in the German Co-Determination Act (MitbestG).
6. All members of the Supervisory Board and all substitute members may retire from office with one month's notice by submitting a written declaration to the Board of Management and by notifying the Chairman of the Supervisory Board. This shall not affect the right of resignation for cause.

§ 11 Chairman and Deputy

1. A Supervisory Board meeting for which no special invitation is issued shall be held subsequent to the Annual Shareholders' Meeting at which the Supervisory Board members representing the shareholders were elected. At said meeting, the Supervisory Board shall appoint a Chairman and a Deputy Chairman from among its members for the term of office specified in section 10 (2) of these Articles of Incorporation under the direction of the oldest member in terms of age pursuant to section 27 German Co-Determination Act (MitbestG).
2. Should the Chairman or Deputy Chairman retire from office prematurely, the Supervisory Board shall hold a new election for the vacant position for the remainder of the term of office of the retiring member without delay.

4. Declarations of intent of the Supervisory Board shall be made by the Chairman on behalf of the board. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board is authorized to make the declarations of intent and take the measures, on behalf of the Supervisory Board, that are required to implement the resolutions passed by the Supervisory Board. The Chairman is authorized to accept declarations made to the Supervisory Board.

The day on which the invitation is sent and the day of the meeting shall not count towards this notice period. This period of notice may be curtailed in urgent cases if the Chairman establishes that the matter is urgent and refers to such urgency in the notice convening the meeting. Likewise in urgent cases, there must be a period of at least three days between a meeting being convened and the date of the meeting. The venue of the meeting shall be determined by the Chairman. Meetings may be convened in writing, by fax, by telephone, or by any other standard means of communication (e.g. email). The Supervisory Board can set out further details in its rules of procedure.
2. The Supervisory Board should endeavor to hold a meeting every quarter and must hold two meetings per half-year. As a rule, meetings should be held with the personal participation of the Supervisory Board members (meetings with personal attendance). In addition, meetings can also be held via telephone, video or web conference or similar means of communication by order of the Chairman, and must be held in such a way that merely individual Supervisory Board members are connected via these means of communication.
3. The members of the Board of Management shall generally attend the meetings of the Supervisory Board unless the Chairman of the Supervisory Board decides otherwise or the Supervisory Board resolves otherwise. The Supervisory Board should meet regularly without the Board of Management.

§ 14 Passing of resolutions

The Supervisory Board shall constitute a quorum only if all of its members have been invited to a meeting and at least half of all the members of which it comprises partake in the passing of the resolutions. Participation in a meeting also includes participation using telephone, video or web conference or via similar means of communication. A member also participates in the passing of a resolution if he or she abstains from voting. Absent Supervisory Board members can take part in Supervisory Board votes at meetings by having their votes submitted by other Supervisory Board members to whom they have transmitted these votes in writing, by fax or by electronic means of telecommunication with a qualified signature. The Supervisory Board can set out further details in its rules of procedure.
2. Unless stipulated otherwise by law as a mandatory requirement or by these Articles of Incorporation, resolutions of the Supervisory Board shall be passed on the basis of a simple majority of the votes cast. In the event of a tied vote, the members shall vote again on the same issue. If this vote is likewise tied, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall be awarded an additional, deciding vote. Section 108 (3) German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) shall also apply to the additional vote. In all other respects, section 14 (1) sentence 4 of the Articles of Incorporation shall apply accordingly. The Deputy Chairman is not entitled to this additional vote.
3. Resolutions may also be passed outside meetings by votes submitted or conducted in writing, by fax, by telephone or by means of electronic media, as well as by a combination of all the aforementioned methods of resolution if prescribed by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board with an appropriate period of notice. Objections may be raised to this form of passing resolutions by the other members of the Supervisory

Board only in justified exceptional cases. The Supervisory Board can set out further details in its rules of procedure.

4. The advice of experts and informants may be sought in relation to individual items of the agenda.
5. Minutes shall be taken of the proceedings and resolutions of the Supervisory Board and shall be signed by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board. The minutes shall specify the date and venue of the meeting, those present at the meeting, the items on the agenda, the essence of the proceedings, and the resolutions of the Supervisory Board.

§ 15 Committees

1. The Supervisory Board is authorized to delegate individual tasks for which it is responsible to committees or individual board members insofar as permitted by law. The rules of procedure of the Supervisory Board set out further details in this regard.
2. In any case, the Supervisory Board shall set up the committee to be formed pursuant to section 27 (3) German Co-Determination Act (MitbestG) immediately after the election of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and the Deputy Chairman. In addition to the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and the Deputy Chairman, this committee also includes one member representing the shareholders and one employee representative.

§ 16 Remuneration

1. In addition to the reimbursement of their out-of-pocket expenses incurred in performing their duties in the relevant fiscal year ended, all Supervisory Board members receive basic compensation of EUR 30,000.00 as well as an attendance fee of EUR 3,000.00 per meeting. The same applies to telephone, video or web conferences or conferences via similar means of communication. The Chairman receives double the two aforementioned sums, and his Deputy receives one-and-a-half times these amounts. The basic remuneration and the attendance fees fall due at the end of the fiscal year. Members of the Supervisory Board who have not been members of the Supervisory Board or who have not held the position of Chairman or Deputy Chairman for the entire fiscal year are only entitled to basic remuneration on a pro rata basis.
2. Each member of a Supervisory Board committee shall receive remuneration in the amount of EUR 5,000.00 in addition to the reimbursement of their out-of-pocket expenses incurred in performing their duties in the relevant fiscal year ended. § 20 Chair of the Annual Shareholders' Meeting, shareholders' right to ask questions and speak

1. The Annual Shareholders' Meeting shall be chaired by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or, if he is prevented from doing so, by another Supervisory Board member to be appointed by him.
